

BRENDA BRESLIN

Brenda Breslin applies hands-on experience to the classroom, drawing on her career spanning more than 20 years in Project Management, PMO and Portfolio Management, and IT Leadership. From individual mentoring on the supervisor to manager to leader continuum, small class PM topics, large group presentations or focused conversations with top management, and everywhere in between, she provides real examples and realistic expectations to make it happen in your workplace. A PMP since 2001, her training experience includes introductory skills for new PMs, focused advanced topics for seasoned PMs, PMO implementation, on-going training and mentoring which allows student to apply learning throughout, methodology definition and implementation, project sponsor roles, and others. Brenda will support the realization of your company's goals.